THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FOCUS: Jesus makes clear that there is an urgency in leaving the things of the world behind to follow him.

Jesus calls each of us to give up the things of the world, to repent of our sins, and to follow him no matter the cost. He does not violate our freedom, however; he allows us to choose whether we will stay where we are or follow the way of the cross, which ultimately leads to everlasting life.

LITURGY OF THE WORD: In the first reading, Elijah passes Elisha and casts his mantle on him. Elisha asks if he may go home and kiss his parents goodbye. In the second reading, Paul writes that Christ set us free from slavery, and explains that freedom comes through the greatest commandment—to love. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a man who wishes to follow him that the kingdom of God requires following him in that very moment.

-Daily Universal Prayer and Commentary

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
